

Who would I be? (if I gave you all I am)

1. Who would I be if I gave you all I am?

Who would I be if I let you lead me on?
Who would I be if I took you at your word?
Who would I be if I let you be my Lord?
Who would I be if I let you draw me near?
Who would I be if I overcame my fear?
Who would I be if I let you heal my pain?
Who would I be if I gave your truth domain?

*I would be so full of joy
As my heart beat time with yours.
I would see the world anew
With compassion that endures.*

*I'd be free of looking in
At the things that weigh me down;
I would be yours to show how much
You love the people all around.*

2. Who would I be if I yielded all to you?

Who would I be if I let your peace flow through?
Who would I be if I loved you without fail?
Who would I be if I let your grace prevail?
Who would I be if I let your love soak through?
Who would I be if I let my mind renew?
Who would I be if I stopped and could be still?
Who would I be if I sought to know your will?

Chorus

3. Who would I be if I let you have your way?

Who would I be if I talked with you each day?
Who would I be if I shared what I've received?
Who would I be if I lived what I believed?

Who would I be if I graciously forgave?
Who would I be if I blessed those who betrayed?
Who would I be if I just released my past?
Who would I be if I let myself be last?

*I would be so more alive
Than I ever knew before.
I would rise on wings of faith
And then effortlessly soar.*

*I'd be free of looking in
At the things that weigh me down;
I would be yours to show how much
You love the people all around.*
